Ivan Sagita

Indonesian , b.1957

Ivan Sagita was born in 1957 in East Java. He studied painting in Indonesian Institute of the Arts in Jakarta during 1979 to 1985. A versatile artist with a diverse practice, Sagita is one of the most prominent artists who is associated with the Jogja surrealism movement in the 1980s, a form of surrealism that is locally situated and contextualized.

He's known as an introvert and mysterious artist, but his work of art is well known in the world of art. In 2003, he was awarded a Fellowship Artists in Residence from the Vermont Studio Centre, USA. He is also the recipient of numerous awards including Indonesian Painting Biennale (1987&1989), Silver Medal at the Osaka Triennale (1996) and Mainichi Broadcasting System Prize at the Osaka Sculpture Triennale(1998). Sagita has exhibited extensively in Japan, Australia, Indonesia, Singapore and USA. He lives and works in Jogjakarta, Indonesia.

Well-versed in the art of paintings and sculptures, Sagita combines strong social element with the spiritual realm, become a unique interpreter of the existential condition.

Sagita uses realistic painting techniques to make unrealistic images. Out of this tension, he strives to depict the uncertainties of everyday life, especially as they impact on those who are powerless in the face of poverty and injustice. He is also experienced in woodcarving and metal cast sculptures to convey the themes about fragility, mortality and spiritualism. His subjects are frequently the local traditional Javanese people he observes and traditional objects used in daily life and these strength and inner wisdom.

Sagita's art often explores themes of humanity and societal issues. He believes that art needs to be symbolic, in addition to the message being conveyed. Sagita delicately balances the twin objectives of spirituality and social reality of his art works, creating poignant and eerily haunting pieces resonant of an Indonesian touch.
